Prelude

Scripture Reading: Psalm 19:1-3 (Liturgist- Rachael Snyder)

Call to Worship:

L: In the beginning,

P: God created the heavens and the earth.

L: And God said, "Let there be light,"

P: And there was light.

L: And God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters."

P: And God made the expanse and separated the waters that were under the expanse from the waters that were above the expanse.

L: And God said, "Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear."

P: And it was so. And the earth brought forth vegetation, plants yielding seed according to their own kinds, and trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind.

L: And God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night

P: And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars.

L: And God said, "Let the waters swarm with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the heavens."

P: So God created the great sea creatures and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarm, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind.

L: And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds—livestock and creeping things and beasts of the earth according to their kinds."

P: And it was so. God made the beasts of the earth according to their kinds and the livestock according to their kinds, and everything that creeps on the ground according to its kind.

L: Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."

P: So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

L: And God saw everything that he had made,

P: And behold, it was very good.
